Democratic City Committee Declares Nominees for Council.

Times-Dispatch Bureau,
162 North Sycamore Street,
Petersburg, Va., May 3.
Supervisor of Census W. A. Land, of Blackstone, was in the city to-day and held a conference at the Chamber of Commerce with members of the chamber, relative to the enumeration of the population taken in this city. While the general work of the enumerators closed on Saturday, in order that any omissions might be corrected, the supervisors extended the time for five days to and including Thursday. At the conference to-day he further extended the time to and including Saturday, and designated Enumerator W. H. Scott to receive and record the names of all persons who may have been overlooked.

Several of the enumerators were present at the conference, who reported that they had faithfully discharged their duties. It was agreed that all persons who have not been visited by the enumerator should be urged to report to Mr Scott, and that all the pupils in the public schools should be advised by their teachers to bring the matter to the attention of their parents and friends.

Henry Bagley, a colored citizen of Greenesville county, boarded a train at Emporia for Petersburg evening before last, having $ii in silver in his pockets. On the train he became acquainted with Henry Pearson, a negro claiming to be from Statesville, N. C., and the two became intimate, much to the subsequent grief of Bagley.

Arriving in Petersburg, Pearson treated several times, and Bagley invited his friend to the home of a relative to take supper with him. Afterwards, Bagley sank into a stupor, as though he had been doped in his drinks, and when Pearson had gone Bagley's $ii had gone also. Yesterday, before hearing of the robbery, Detectives Eanes and Heelan learned that Pearson was endeavoring to exchange Pearson was endeavoring to exchange a quantity of silver money into notes, and they arrested him on suspicion that something was wrong.

Later, when Bagley, still in partially dazed condition, appeared at the station to give information as to the
